Dear Mr. Judd:

Again, I ethically cannot, and will not, "sort out" a single $1.5 million offer among my clients. Nor have I communicated a single $2.6 million offer. I have communicated four independent offers. Please address them as such. If you will not do so, I will assume that your client has rejected each of the four.

Thank you.

Mr. Wood, First I apologize for the delay in responding to your email of Friday, October 3, 2014. I am not sure why, but your email was redirected to our "spam" filter. I have checked with our technical support and I believe that the appropriate approvals are in place to avoid the delay in the future. I respect your comment regarding conflicts of interest, and I will leave you to sort that out among your clients. Please know that Windsor views all settlement discussions as related, and will leave any breakdown to you and your clients. Accordingly, we view your proposal as a $2.6m offer versus our $1.5m. If you are fixed in your position, then we can agree to proceed with both cases. If you would like to continue discussions, please let me know.

I am still in a bench trial in Fresno, CA. The estimate is to be there through the end of the month. Accordingly, I will be best reached through email, or on my cell phone (415) 717-7273. Sincerely, Darin T. Judd Darin T. Judd
